

Triathlon Red Blend

Australian Ultra Premium $15 - $19.99 RED BLENDS UP 18% in value

*IRI QTR July 10 2016

KEY SELLING POINTS

- Barossa debossed bottle, tactile, unique, a talking point and easy recall
- Name is appealing and refers to the three disciplines required to make wine.
 - Growing
 - Winemaking
 - Blending
- Like a triathlete –
 - Substance
 - Strength
 - Staying Power
- This wine is all rounded with 3 great varieties : Merlot 35%, Grenache 35%, Petit Verdot 35% are
 - Vibrant Colour
 - Voluptuous Weight
 - Generous flavour
 - A Chateau serious wine
 - 8 gms RS

TASTING NOTE

Grenache brings ripe red fruits plus a hint of pepper and spice, Petit Verdot aromas of violets and mid-palate weight with Merlot adding intense, plum and blackberry flavours and lush, velvety tannins.

Matthews Road Cabernet Sauvignon

Australian Ultra Premium $15 - $19.99 CABERNET is UP 23% in value

*IRI QTR July 10 2016

- 70% fruit sourced from the Eden Valley making high quality, fresh and aromatic wines
- Eden valley is like Mount Veeder, higher altitude, longer ripening, cooling night breezes.

KEY SELLING POINTS

- Barossa debossed bottle, tactile, unique, a talking point and easy recall
- Exceptional value for money
- Generous flavour and ripe fruit character in line with USA not as dry
- Barossa is Napa of Australia

Specially blended for USA

TASTING NOTES:

Open fermentation of small individual parcels and careful basket pressing have resulted in a full bodied Cabernet Sauvignon. Lifted aromas of black current, plum and violet are supported by dark berry fruits and a hint of vanilla on the palate. The extensive finish is framed by elegant, fine grained tannins from maturation in a combination of new and seasoned French Oak Barrels.